Northwind Coffee: Brand and Wholesale Guide

Voice

We write the way we talk at the roaster: warm, plain and a little nerdy about where the coffee grew. We name the farm and the process. We never say supercharge, elevate or game-changer, and we never use exclamation marks.

Wholesale terms

Cafes order 5 lb bags with a 10 lb minimum per order. Orders placed by Friday noon are roasted Monday and delivered on Tuesday in Portland. Single origins are 13.50 dollars per pound. Standing weekly orders over 30 lb get 5 percent off.

Returns and refunds

If a bag arrives stale or damaged, tell us within 14 days and we replace it or refund it, whichever the cafe prefers. We do not charge for return shipping.

Photography

Natural light only, beans and hands in frame, no stock photos and no latte art close-ups.
